OUTLINES.

Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the House of Representatives, at Chicago yesterday, expressed himself in favor of the revision of the tariff according to the pledges of the Republican platform——The expressions of three read admirals in answer to the criticism of the American warships was read in Chicago last night. Cotton quiet, middling uplands 9.55, middling gulf 9.80. Flour about steady. Wheat easy, No. 2 red 1.11 1-8 to 1.12 1-8. Corn easy, No. 2 71 1-2 new elevator. Oats quiet, mixed 53 1-2 to 54 elevator. Rosin and turpentine steady.

Taft may not take a hand openly in the Speakership contest, but enough has been said to let it be known that he is "agin" Cannon.

If there are any superstitious persons among those who are to take part in the automobile races at Savannah they had better keep out of them.

The Republicans should not be so greedy as to contest the election in the Ninth district. They should be satisfied with gaining three Congressmen in one year in this State.

What is puzzling the country is why Roosevelt put that labor leaders' banquet off until after the election. Maybe it was sort of a Thanksgiving dinner because of the labor vote.

New gold coins are to be fashionable Christmas presents this year. There is such a demand for $10 and $20 pieces for this purpose that the mint at Philadelphia is kept busy turning them out.

You may say what you please about Bryan's many defeats for the Presidency, but it can't be denied that those who were his friends before the first defeat are standing by him still with as great faith in and admiration for him.

It looks like a vigilance committee might put in some good work in Salisbury. According to the Post there were two hold-ups on the streets one night last week and three attempts during the week to burglarize one residence.

It looks like Taft is not going to let Cannon as Speaker run the Government if he can help it. Congressman Burton's remarks amounted to service of notice on that gentleman that he would have a stiff fight on his hands for the office.

As Morehead, of the Fifth district, was so averse to becoming a member of Congress, he will hardly seek a renomination two years hence. The public will have to wait and see, for two years in Washington generally gives a man a hankering to stay longer.

We can't believe the railroads of this State are trying to organize concerted action among themselves for re-opening the railroad question in the next Legislature. There may be some amendments to the present law, but hardly an effort to start the fight all over again.

Uncle Sam thought he had something original in the sunken designs on the new gold coins, but Director Leech, of the Philadelphia mint, says it has been discovered that similar coins were made by the Greeks four hundred years before the Christian era.

FEAR PERSONAL VIOLENCE

Negro Who Offered Affront to Young White Lady Brought in From County Roads After Sentence in Police Court.

Fearing offers of personal violence from friends and relatives of the young lady whom he dared to affront by addressing a note Saturday night, asking if he might accompany her home from the store of Joseph Berbary, a Syrian by whom she is employed as a saleslady on South Front street, particulars of which were given in Sunday morning's paper, Joshua Holland, a flashily dressed young mulatto who is said to have recently come here from Washington, N. C., and who was employed by a local pressing club, was early last night brought in from the county roads to which he had just been sentenced in the police court for 30 days and he is now confined in the county jail by order of the County Commissioners.

Before Mayor Pro Tem. O'Brien in the police court yesterday noon, Holland submitted to disorderly conduct and he was given the sentence stated, Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., of counsel for Miss Reece, the young lady aggrieved, having asked the Mayor to impose the maximum punishment. There were large crowds in the court room, many of them friends of the family of the young woman and after the trial, with the full knowledge, of course, that the court had done all in its power but realizing that it was just one of those cases which the law did not specifically provide against, there were many suggestions of "thirty-nine lashes" and a peremptory command to leave the county. While it was not known that physical violence would have been offered the negro, the Commissioners, to the ears of whom these suggestions came, realized the demoralization that might ensue among the many other prisoners confined in the camp, and out of an abundance of precaution ordered Constable Savage and Deputy Sheriff Cox to go out to the camp to which Harlan had been sent and bring him to the county jail. Superintendent Hocutt and several guards of the camp, brought the prisoner to 17th and Market streets and the other officers placed him in jail about nightfall. He will likely remain there for the remainder of his term and then be given hurry orders to leave for parts unknown. The negro denies the serious charge laid at his door and the anxiety he must undergo during his 30 days confinement in the jail here will no doubt teach him a lesson altogether wholesome.

MRS. BARNES PASSED AWAY

Good Woman Died Sunday After Several Months Illness.

Many Wilmington friends and relatives sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. Kate Monroe Barnes, who passed away Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Monroe, 316 North Second street. With her husband, Mr. J. B. Barnes, who survives her, the family located in Augustine, Fla., some three months ago, and shortly afterwards she became ill and came home with the hope of being restored to normal health. She had been quite ill since. Little hope was entertained for her recovery, but her death brought infinite sorrow to her many acqaintances.

Mrs. Barnes was 51 years old, and besides a husband there are surviving, her parents, two sisters and two brothers of the immediate family, as follows: Mrs. Mary Bryant, Mrs. W. H. Collins and Messrs. James W. Monroe and W. P. Monroe, all residents of this city.

CAPE FEAR GOLF CLUB

Annual Meeting Last Night—All-day Thanksgiving Tournament.

The annual meeting of the Cape Fear Golf Club was held last night in the parlors of The Orton. All the old officers and members of the Board of Governors were re-elected and the reports received were most encouraging. That of the secretary showed 90 gentlemen and 80 lady members. The country club house has now been completed and arrangements are being made for a house warming as soon as it is occupied. Plans for the coming season were discussed and the outlook was found to be exceedingly bright. The annual Thanksgiving tournament of 27 holes will be played over the course Thursday, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and continuing all day. An oyster roast and luncheon will be features of the day and members of the club and their guests are looking forward to the affair with much interest.

Dr. Cranmer's Residence Damaged.

An alarm from Box 61 at 7:55 o'clock Sunday night called the fire department to the home of Dr. J. B. Cranmer, 615 Orange street, and the blaze discovered on the second floor of his home was extinguished with little difficulty. The fire had gained some headway, but the excellent service of the department reduced the damage to about $100.

BONDS SOLD WELL

Boston Brokers Bid Highest For County's 4 1-2 Per Cent. Road Improvement Bonds.

THE PROPOSALS OPENED

Eleven Bidders For New Hanover Securities to Run For 25 Years—Sale Confirmed and Work Will Go Forward Without Delay.

Ten bids of more than par and accrued interest for the county's four and a half per cent. road improvement bonds and another upon a five per cent. basis, which, however, was rejected, were received yesterday afternoon by the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover at a special meeting held at the Court House for the purpose of opening the proposals as advertised. The award was to E. H. Rollins & Son, of Boston, at $1.02 and a fraction, plus the accrued interest, the sale having later been confirmed with the Massachusetts brokers at the amount named.

The bonds run for only 25 years and the bid includes the cost of engraving the certificates, attorney's fees, etc., which is borne by the buyer. Three of the bidders had representatives at the meeting, who stated that they would bid even higher were the bonds made to run for 30 instead of 25 years. Among those present representing the bidders were Colonel F. M. Stafford, representing McDonald McCoy & Co., of Chicago; Mr. W. S. Glenn, representing the Security Trust Co., of Saprtanburg, S. C. and A. J. Fischer, representing Weil, Roth & Co., of Chicago. There were present at the meeting Chairman McEachern and Messrs. Robertson, Vollers and Divine, of the Board, and Register of Deeds John Haar, clerk ex-officio. The bids were examined very carefully and in order that there might be no quibbling over technicalities raised by Mr. Fisher, the second highest bidder, however in no sense of intermeddling, a telegram was forwarded to the highest bidder, Rollins & Son, of Boston, re-stating the phraseology of the bid and securing a confirmation by telegraph last evening. The bids and bidders were as follows:

John Nuveen & Co., of Chicago, on a basis of five per cent., par and a premium of $1,250 with no accrued interest. (Rejected on account of higher rate of interest)

Woodin, McNear & Moore, Chicago, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $500 premium with cost of engraving, etc.

Otis & Hough, Cleveland, Ohio, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $8 premium with no provision for engraving.

Seasongood & Mayer, Cincinnati, Ohio, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $390 premium and cost of engraving, etc.

John S. Armstrong & Co., Baltimore, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $527.50 premium, with no cost of engraving, etc.

Weil, Roth & Co., of Chicago, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $500 premium with cost of engraving, etc.

McDonald, McCoy & Co., Chicago, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $17 premium with no cost of engraving, etc.

E. H. Rollins & Son, Boston, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $1,088.00 premium with cost of engraving, etc.

The Robinson-Humphrey Co., Atlanta, Ga., 4 1-2 per cent., par and $137.50 premium and cost of engraving.

Farson Sons & Co., Chicago, 4 1-2 per cent., par and $515 premium with cost of engraving, etc.

Security Trust Co., Spartanburg, S. C., 4 1-2 per cent., par and premium of $325 with cost of engraving, etc.

All the bids are with accrued interest except where otherwise stated. The issue is for $50,000 and is for the purpose of continuing the road and bridge improvements begun in the county some years ago by the present Board of Commissioners. The sale is very gratifying to the Board and the premium commanded with the large number of bidders is an evidence of the high standing of the county in financial centers North. In length they are to run, the bonds are even less attractive to investors than the 30-year four and a half per cent.s recently put on the market by the city. The commissioners and the people of New Hanover are to be congratulated upon the showing made by the county in the biddling of yesterday. The money from the sale of the bonds will be immediately available and the work on the highways and bridges of the county will go forward uninterruptedly.

MISSION AT SAINT JOHN'S

Archdeacon Webber Continues to Speak With Great Power and Learning to Large Congregations—Services Sunday.

Large congregations of attentive and sympathetic hearers were present on the Sabbath and again yesterday for the series of services being conducted as a mission at St. John's Episcopal Church. Archdeacon Webber has deeply taken hold upon the people of Wilmington and they are greatly impressed with him as a missioner of great power and personal influence.

Beginning with Holy Communion at which the archdeacon was the celebrant at 7:30 o'clock, the services Sunday were especially impressive upon the large congregations, the feature meeting having perhaps been that for men in the afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when the brotherhoods of St. James and St. John joined in the service and Rev. Mr. Webber spoke with great force upon "Some Characteristics of Higher Manhood," holding up the supreme example of Christ. It was an earnest, eloquent appeal for Christian manhood and a very fine exposition of what it means to be truly religious.

The morning sermon at 11 A. M. is spoken of by all in attendance as having been one of great eloquence and power in which the beauties of Christian living were pointed out with much emphasis. At night there was a joint service of the four Episcopal congregations in the city and the church was filled to overflowing with people to hear the archdeacon.

Yesterday the congregations were again large and in the afternoon Rev. Mr. Webber spoke of "The Power of the Holy Ghost," this having been in the opinion of many who heard him, one of the greatest of the discourses yet delivered by the speaker.

It is regretted that a combination of circumstances forbids a more extended references to these great sermons, which to miss is a distinctive loss. The archdeacon has impressed all as a divine of great learning and of catholic and tolerant view. His broadness and his culture have endeared him to all who have come within the radius of his magnetic influence. Four services are held daily and the public is cordially invited to any or all of them.

McDOUGALL-FARRINGTON

Popular Young People Wedded at Home of Bride's Mother Yesterday.

Of interest to their many friends here and elsewhere will be the announcement of the marriage of Miss May McDougall, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. J. H. McDougall, and Mr. Hugh Belk Farrington, formerly with the North Carolina Cotton Oil Co., in this city, but now of Lincolnton, N. C. The marriage was solemnized at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, No. 314 Walnut street, the Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, officiating in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit and following a brief reception at the home, Mr. Farrington and bride left on the afternoon train for a bridal tour, returning from which they will be at home after December 1st on Main street, Lincolnton, N. C. Many friends in Wilmington will extend very best wishes to the popular young people.

Mayor Springer Called to Gainesville, Fla., Sunday.

A telegram was received yesterday from Mayor William E. Springer at Gainsville, Fla., conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Benjamin Rush, brother of Mrs. Springer, which occurred on Sunday night. Mayor Springer left the city Sunday afternoon in response to a message stating the critical illness of Mr. Rush, who had been in failing health for some time past.

Mr. Rush was a Confederate veteran and a man of high standing. Wilmington friends extend sincere condolences to the bereaved relatives. The funeral and burial will be at Gainsville. Mrs. Springer was unable to accompany Mayor Springer.

Was Shooting at Random.

What is believed to have been a case of more than ordinary consequence, was enacted Saturday night on Bladen street between Fifth and Sixth, when James Register, a white man, discharged his pistol several times, and from what is understood by the police was shooting at Riley Smith, another young white man, with whom he is said to have had some trouble. At any rate Register is wanted on three charges, for shooting in the city limits, assault and disorderly conduct. The police have been unable to locate the accused and believe he has left this section.

Negro For False Pretense.

Julius Cowan, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Savage, on the charge of false pretense and sent to jail for trial before Justice Furlong this afternoon. Cowan worked a successful game according to the charges, on a colored merchant, John Merrick, who conducts a grocery store at Eleventh and Dock streets, to obtain provisions under the pretense that he had been authorized to get same by a reliable party.

50TH. ANNIVERSARY

LARGELY ATTENDED SUNDAY

Perhaps the largest congregation ever assembled in the building was present Sunday evening to participate in an appropriate climax to a series of exercises in celebration of the semi-centennial of the founding of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, this city, of which the beloved Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., is pastor.

It was a joint service of the three Presbyterian congregations in the city and there were present not only members of this denomination but people of the city generally, many with no church affiliation whatever. Every available seat in the main auditorium of the church, the gallery and the primary room of the Sunday School between the vestibuled entrances of the church was filled while many chairs were placed in the aisles and elsewhere to accommodate the large congregation. The pulpit was appropriately banked with palms and plants while in front of the Bible stand were large vases of beautiful yellow chrysanthemums, emblematical of the golden anniversary, and kindly sent by a friend of the congregation.

A large double choir of sixteen voices led the music for the occasion with Miss Cannie Chasten as the organist. This choir was composed of Misses Lucy McIntosh, Carrie White, Gertrude Sneed and Mrs. Jos. W. Yates, sopranos; Misses Elizabeth S. Waddell, Sallie Smith, Carrie Barker and Mrs. James D. Smith, altos; Messrs. J. B. Fenley, H. E. Boney, Greene Fenley and W. L. Williford, tenors, and Messrs. H. R. Bates, Geo. S. Boyland, H. K. Holden and R. G. Rankin, Jr., bassos.

The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. McClure, who directed the service, the anniversary features proper being opened with the introduction of the venerable Mr. B. G. Worth, who spoke of the times, commercially and generally, when the old Second Church, now Saint Andrew's, was founded. Although more than the three score and ten years suggested by the Psalmist, Mr. Worth spoke with an ease, a fluency, a clearness of perception that invested his words with peculiar charm for his hearers. At the time of which he spoke the country was just emerging from a panic the like of which it had not seen before nor since. He told of the humility of the chastened people and the stress which bowed their knees to the Almighty in supplication for deliverance; then their recovery from ruin and disaster and their founding of a second church in a sense of gratitude to God for his blessings. Upon this rock he thought St. Andrew's had been builded and would endure forever. He paid splendid tribute to the father of the church, the lamented Alexander Sprunt, and rejoiced that sons were left, who had carried on the work to a glorious fruition. He also paid high and genial tribute to the beloved pastor of the congregation, Dr. McClure, under whose ministry the work has so greatly prospered in more recent years. He saw signs of an improvement of the times in a closer interdenominational feeling and a broader spirit of Christian unity. He closed his splendid address with a quotation from the English poet, William Cowper, illustrating the beauty of peace and brotherly love.

Mr. James Sprunt, a son of one of the first ruling elders of the congregation and an honored citizen of the town and community in his day, the lamented Mr. Alexander Sprunt, read a delightful paper, prepared in his characteristically happy style, giving

BUSINESS REVIVAL.

"A ringing keynote of industrial and business revival in the South and Southwest is sounded in more than 200 letters from manufacturers, bankers, engineers, architects, contractors, railroad officials, dealers in fertilizer, supply houses, real-estate men, mining interests and other representatives of material affairs in that section published on the following fifteen pages." —Manufacturers' Record.

Then follow fifteen pages of letters from leading men in all classes of business from all over the South. We give below several of these from our State which shows what present conditions are and what the prospect is for still greater betterment of conditions:

(Hugh MacRae & Co., Bankers, Wilmington, N. C.)

"There seems to be a very good feeling throughout the South, and the general expectation that business will improve steadily and rather rapidly. We think that the farmers are in comfortable financial condition and that there are good indications for early activity in the cotton-mill business and in the lumber business. Should these favorable indications be borne out by results, the panic will happily be a thing of the past; in fact, we feel confident that the backbone of the panic has been broken, and that it is only a question between gradual recovery and quick recovery."

"We think there is a very bright business outlook in this section. We have had a great many inquiries recently for machinery, especially sawmill machinery. And the orders for mill repairs which we are receiving daily would indicate that the sawmills intend to start up at full time again."

(Ceasar Cone, president Proximity Manufacturing Co., Greensboro, N. C.)

"Prices on our product got down to a basis considerably below actual cost of production, and just prior to the election a pretty fair demand sprang up. Most of this demand was for later deliveries, which indicated that the purchasing was more or less speculative. After booking quite a considerable amount of business on this losing basis, we advanced prices, since which time our business has been quite moderate. We believe conditions have improved somewhat, but are still a long way from satisfactory. We hope to see a very considerable improvement, though as yet the most of it we have seen is newspaper talk."

(G. W. Patterson, secretary and treasurer Consolidated Granite Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.)

"Our view of the situation is optimistic. We are sold considerably ahead, and within the last few days have received an unusual number of requests for samples, prices, etc., indicating a desire on the part of the dealers in all sections of the country to place liberal orders for spring shipment. We have every reason to expect that we will be rushed to the limit of our capacity, and the only drawback we see ahead of us is that we will not have sufficient output to supply the demand. This may sound extravagant, but it does no more than state the facts as we see them."

In writing from Raleigh on the general outlook in the State Fred A. Olds says in part:

"There are signs of a business revival in this State along various lines, and the situation has brightened in general, though to tell the truth the cotton mill men are the last to feel it, and are still somewhat put to it, having had the hardest year since they have been in business. There are over 300 mills, and all are now in operation, though a considerable percentage either shortens hours or closed down for longer or shorter periods during the summer or early autumn. The mills have stood by their help admirably, and their employes have stood by them. The larger lumber plants are the last to get at business again, and many of these have been idle practically the whole year. The smaller mills, as a general thing, have been in operation, and the recent advance in the prices of lumber, though not large, has helped them. Added to this is the fact that they expect a still further increase. The railways show an increase in business in general, though it is not normal as regards freight. The passenger traffic has been better than expected during the year."

CARMACK'S TRIBUTE TO THE SOUTH.

As our readers know, Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, served only one term in the Senate of the United States, but in that short time came to the front and was recognized as one of the most brilliant members of his party in that body and astounded the country by his rapid progress toward the enviable position of leader of his party in the Senate. The rapidity with which his genius and his eloquence brought him to the front in that body of usually slow progress of recognition by fellow members astonished the Senate and the country. Mr. Carmack delivered some remarkable speeches during his short service in the Senate. By his speeches he was attracting the attention of members on both sides and winning their applause at a time in his Senatorial career when most new members usually hesitate to let their voices be heard on the floor. Of all his eloquent speeches he uttered nothing more eloquent, more beautiful in language and sentiment than this tribute to the South, which formed part of one of his addresses to the Senate:

"I speak, sir, for my native South. It is a land that has known sorrows, a land that has broken the ashen crust, and moistened it with its tears; a land scarred and riven by the plowshare of war, and billowed with the graves of her dead, but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories.

"To that land every drop of my blood, every fibre of my being, every pulsation of my heart is consecrated forever.

"I was born of her womb, I was nurtured at her breast, and when my last hour shall come I pray God that I may be pillowed upon her bosom and rocked to sleep within her tender and encircling arms."

EPIDEMIC OF CRIME.

The number of shootings, murders, assassinations and other heinous crimes which almost daily occur in this country has become appalling. Hardly a daily newspaper comes from the press which does not contain accounts of several such crimes. There is a perfect epidemic of crime the country over. It is confined to no one section. It prevails from Florida to the Canada line and from ocean to ocean. Every man of violent temper or vicious habits seems to think he is a law unto himself; that his alone is the right to punish for a personal wrong or to correct a supposed evil. Crime begets crime and thus it goes on, in ever widening circles of offenses against life and property. Life is becoming more cheaply held; property rights are less regarded and the authority of courts and executive officers more openly defied every day. The old adage that two wrongs cannot make a right has been changed into that of one wrong excuses the doing of another. We are fast drifting back to the old maxim of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth and a life for a life, but without the ancient formality of having such judgment enforced by decree of court or some official clothed with power to demand the forfeit. How is this tendency to be checked? and where will it end if not checked? are questions which should receive the serious attention of officials and of law-abiding private citizens.

CARNEGIE FOR TARIFF REDUCTION.

What will Cannon, Dalzell and the other stand patters on the tariff question think when they hear that Carnegie has come out as an advocate of tariff for revenue only? Yesterday's dispatches announced, as will be seen elsewhere in this paper, that the Century Magazine for December will contain an article by him, taking the position that the so called "infaut industries" no longer need protection; that the steel and other industries have outgrown the need of such fostering care. What is still more astounding is that he should advocate a reduction of duties all around, and perhaps to abolish some, but, as an exception to this, the increase of some duties on articles "used almost exclusively by the rich." Another proposition by him is to reduce duties on manufactured articles. Heretofore many tariff revisionists have demanded reduction of duties on raw materials, which benefits manufacturers and also helps consumers by permitting reduction of the price of the manufactured article. One will have to read Carengie's article in full before being able to understand what he is after and then he may not be able to fathom the motives of the king of iron and steel manufacturers in coming out as an advocate of tariff for revenue only—if that is what he really means.

GOOD ADVICE.

We find the following in the editorial columns of the Twin-City Echo, of Rocky Mount. It is sensible talk and good advice, not only to the people of that town, but to those of all towns in the whole land:

"If you are of a combative nature, and must fight some one, fight the man out of town, don't war among yourselves. What in truth we need is co-operation, helpful co-operation. Let us pull together, and push together until the old town rings with a new life and industrial vitality, until every man smiles, and is happy because he is making money and prospering."

Popular Mechanics Magazine for December, with an interesting table of contents on many subjects connected with mechanics, accounts of new inventions, etc., is before us. It describes the mode of building concrete houses by holding solid walls flat on the ground and raising them into place. It tells about a "Flying Machine that Climbs," "Electricity on the Farm," is another one of the many interesting articles. It is full of instructive matter for the mechanic as well as the ordinary reader. The magazine is published at 225 Washington street, Chicago; price ten cents per copy. It can be found at all newsdealers.

If the Democratic National party is ever to succeed it must first declare for a set of principles on which the party can agree and then nominate a man who heartily endorses those principles. It can never succeed so long as it chooses the man first and then tries to make a compromise of its principles with the political views he holds.

The Christmas number of Woman's Home Companion is a beauty indeed—profusely illustrated and filled from cover to cover with interesting reading. It is published by the Crowell Publishing Company, Metropolitan Annex Building, Madison Square, New York City, at 15 cents a copy or $1.25 a year.

The public seems to be getting anxious to know when the next Legislative session will convene. The State constitution provides that the Legislature shall meet bi-ennially on the Wednesday after the first Monday in January. That day next year will fall on the 6th of the month.

A Pennsylvania man who died recently made a bequest in his will of 50 cents to his son-in-law "to enable him to buy for himself a good stout rope with which to hang himself." A few more such and the mother-in-law will have a rival for the attention of the newspaper joke writer.

"The Queen of Fashion," McCall's Magazine, for December, has reached this office. This number is truly what its name designates—the queen of fashion. It is published by the McCall Company, 236-246 West 37th St. New York City, at 50 cents a year.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—As we understand Mr. Bryan, in the Commoner, speaking of the labor vote, he is satisfied that Gompers and the leaders stood up all right, but the rank and file got away, exactly how he is not sure, but he thinks the trap had a hole in it somewhere.—Greensboro Record.

—There has been a good deal of speculation as to the probable location of the railroad shops of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Company. It has been decided that the shops will be located at Erwin and contracts for the buildings have been let. The main offices of the company are located at Johnson City and the people of that place were anxious for the shops and expected to get them. Erwin is forty minutes' ride from Johnson City and the location, a broad stretch of level land surrounded by mountains, is admirably adapted for the site of the shops.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—The St. Louis Post-Dispatch, independent Democratic, is quite correct in saying that in some of the "important Southern newspapers there is not much evidence of a proper appreciation of the South's political opportunity and duty. "That section," it says, "is in a position to control the Democratic party. It can compel the party at the North and in the West to be Democratic. It can write platforms and it can name candidates. It can have representation upon the National ticket. There would have been no Democratic party of demagogy and discontent if the Southern States had not made common cause with the Populistic elements of the West against the true Democrats of the North and East."—Charlotte Observer.

—The new Liquor License Law, known as the Shattuck-Gay bill, and numbered 176, of the Legislature of 1908, goes into force on Jan. 1, 1909. Among the most important requirements of the new law are these, namely: No license may be granted to an unnaturalized foreigner, no matter how long he may have resided in the State. To hold a license he must be a citizen of the State. The law applies alike to every person who is not a citizen of Louisiana. No person who may have been convicted of a felonious crime by the courts of this or any other State can hold a license. A question arises here as to a person who has been pardoned. No retail liquor license may be granted to a woman. No barroom under this law can sell liquors to both whites and negroes if drank on the same premises. No single license will be allowed to authorize two barrooms, one for whites and another for blacks, whether in the same building, separation being had by a railing or screen or by a solid partition. There must be two licenses. These are all new provisions in connection with the sale of liquors by the drink, and they are of supreme importance. Most of the restrictions contained in previous laws are repeated and re-enacted.—New Orleans Picayune.

—"See here, sir, before you married my daughter you said you could support her in the style to which she was accustomed, and yet for almost a year now you have made your home at my house." "My dear father-in-law, how otherwise can I find out precisely the style to which she has been accustomed?"

SUPPOSED TO BE HANCOCK

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—A detective boarded the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, on the steamer's arrival from the Orient today and arrested L. E. Knollys, whose description is said to tally with that of L. G. Hancock, wanted by the authorities of Winston-Salem, N. C., on a charge of alleged embezzlement.

The detective said that Hancock was charged with embezzling a sum of money while in the employment of the Lamb-Fish Lumber Company. He was traced to San Francisco, whence he sailed several weeks ago, and orders for his arrest were cabled to Nagasaki. There it was learned that Hancock had left the vessel at Honolulu. The police of Honolulu cabled that a man answering Hancock's description had sailed for San Francisco on the Mongolia.

Knollys denied that he was Hancock and said that he was a member of the brokerage firm of Courtland, Babcock & Co., 44 Pine street, New York. He was taken to the city prison pending word from North Carolina.

A warrant charging embezzlement was issued October 29th, last for the arrest of L. G. Hancock, manager and treasurer of the Lamb-Fish Box Company, one of the largest box manufacturing concerns in Winston-Salem, it being alleged that he carried off $2,458.65.

CARNEGIE ON THE TARIFF.

Steel Industry No Longer in Need of Protection.

New York, Nov. 22.—A notable article by Andrew Carnegie, dealing with the tariff, will appear in the forthcoming December number of the Century Magazine, in which the iron master takes the position that "infant industries" no longer need protection; that the steel and other industries have now grown beyond the need of tariff protection; that duties on luxuries used by the rich should be maintained but that those on manufactured articles should be reduced greatly, or abolished entirely when no longer needed.

Mr. Carnegie says of future tariff legislation:

"The next Congress dealing with the tariff will probably be inclined at first to reduce duties all around and perhaps to abolish some, but its first care should be to maintain present duties, and even in some cases to increase them, upon all articles used almost exculsively by the rich, and this not for protection, but for revenue, not drawn from the workers, but from the rich. That is the first and prime duty of Congress.

"Its second duty is to reduce duties greatly upon manufactured articles and to abolish entirely those no longer needed.

"The writer has co-operated in making several reductions as steel manufacturers became able to bear reductions. Today they need no protection, unless, perhaps in some new specialties unknown to the writer, because steel is now produced cheaper here than anywhere else, notwithstanding the higher wages paid per man. Not a ton of steel is produced in the world at as small as outlay for labor as in our country. Our coke, coal and iron ores are much cheaper, because more easily obtained and transported, and our output per man is so much greater, owing chiefly to the large standardized orders obtainable only upon our continent; the specialized rolling mills; machinery kept weeks upon uniform chapes without charge of rolls, and other advantages.

"The day has passed when any foreign country can seriously affect our steel manufactures, tariff or no tariff."

—Goldsboro, Nov. 21.—Goldsboro's new union passenger station is now receiving the finishing touches of the painters and will soon be ready for occupancy. It is one of the handsomest buildings of its kind in the State and is a pride to the whole city. The Goldsboro Traction Company is now laying steel rails from the station into the city, and although it will be some time yet before the street railway will be completed, the company intends to have a car in operation from the station to the city for the convenience of the city as well as the traveling public. The construction crew of the company is now busily engaged in laying track in the city and the work is progressing at a lively rate.

Lardless Cookery.

Horseless carriages, wireless telegraphy, and now lardless cookery! Lard has, from time immemorial, held sway in the kitchen, but it has one fatal objection—it is indigestible. Nine-tenths of the indigestion with which the American nation is afflicted is due to the use of pork and its by-product—lard.

Recognizing this, The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, have placed on the market a vegetable oil cooking fat, Cottolene, which can be used in every way that lard or butter can, and which makes delicious, digestible and nourishing food. It is recommended by physicians, even to invalids, and it is cheaper than lard, one-third less being required.

The Theatre

In "Marrying Mary", Edwin Milton Royle's musical play, which Jules Murry will present at the Academy tonight with Florence Gear and a large singing company, the heroine naively tells of her three husbands and three divorces as follows:

"These experiments began when I was a mere child. I early showed a turn for higher mathematics. My family was determined that I should marry a man of great wealth, but who was old enough to be my father. It was simply child stealing. Immediately after the ceremony, feeling that I was being kidnapped, I disappeared and have never seen the happy man from that day to this. Eventually I got a divorce for desertion—his desertion. At the psychological moment, at the age when a young girl hesitates between entering a convent and going on the stage, I fell under the influence of an elopement evangelist. We were secretly married. As we drove to the train, I found I was on my way to Salt Lake City. I had married a Mormon Bishop. I got into another carriage and drove home. No. 3 found me face to face with the sordid necessities of life. My uncle died suddenly leaving a large fortune to his son, on condition that we marry. We were married and, according to agreement, separated. We hope soon to divide the inheritance. Cousin Willie only needs a little available capital to drink himself to death. He furnished all the necessary grounds for divorce and several extras. I haven't been married now for some time."

Seats went on sale yesterday.

Thanksgiving Attraction.

Joseph King's company will be seen matinee and night Thursday at the Academy in the everlasting favorite drama, East Lynne. It will be remembered that there are in this beautiful play moments of the greatest intensity. The company engaged for the presentation is said to be selected with great care and that an adequate scenic equipment will furnish an effective background for the performance. It is estimated that more millions of people have witnessed East Lynne than have seen any other play ever written. This remarkable truth is explainable by the fact that the attack of the sensibilities is irresistible—it goes home to the heart and more surely and truly than any other drama, it "touches the spot". Seats will go on sale Wednesday.

At the Crystal.

The Crystal Palace began another successful week yesterday and while the bill ran a little short, as one act, that of Sheldon and Wilson, had to wire at the last minute that they could not come owing to sudden sickness and another act missed railroad connection, yet it was none-the-less pleasing. The deficiency will be made up today, as the Palace management wired immediately for another act and which is expected today. The well known comedy musical artists and ragtime kings, Moredock and Watson, are the stars of the present bill. The present sketch that is vigorously funny and that is filled with pretty music. The instruments played upon are also of novel type. The Gray Sisters also present a clever singing and talking act, one that is dainty, refined and bright.

A Minstrel Film.

"Lew Dockstader in Minstrel Mishaps" will be the title of the film at the Bijou this afternoon and evening. It presents a picture of the famous manager and his company left on a train, the charter of a special, the pressing into service of an ancient hack at the depot, a mishap on the way to the opera house, trouble with the stage manager, a chase across back lots and numerous other mishaps in which Dockstader finally triumphs. It is a film well worth seeing and the prices place it within reach of all.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Miss Kate Myers will give a german to her afternoon dancing class tonight from 7:30 until 9 o'clock.

—A deed was filed for record yesterday conveying from Henrietta J. Corbin to H. E. Walton and wife, for $2,250, lot on Front, 33 feet south of Queen street, 33x66 feet in size.

some reminiscences of the old Chesnut Street Presbyterian church, which he attended as a boy and where he served as a lad of eleven and a half years as assistant to the sexton Benjamin Price, whom he introduced as his "superior officer," when that faithful colored man stood in the congregation and bowed his acknowledgement of the high compliment paid him.

Necessarily sacred and pathetic memories were revived by Mr. Sprunt in the history of the old church so dear to him and his references in this respect were tender and beautiful but the paper was lightened with flashes of wit and humor and scintillated with the geniality of the writer. His quaint reference to the old tuning folk of his sainted father and the Scottish traditions of the Presbyterian church, reflected in the earlier services, with the customs and habits of those days, were greatly enjoyed. The Star hopes later to publish the paper in full, hence the reporter foregoes a more extended reference to this splendid feature of the service.

A cordial greeting from the First Presbyterian Church was extended in a brief talk by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., who spoke of the cordial relations existing between the pastors and congregations and of the relationship that should continue and be broadened. This relation should be one of mutual love, of hearty co-operation, of a generous emulation and rivalry. His prayer was for an ever increasing unsefulness for Saint Andrew's; that its membership may be larger; that its power of consecration may continue among its people and that God's richest blessings may attend the pastor and congregation.

Dr. McClure, pastor of the congregation, read a most interesting historical sketch of the church from the time of its founding Nov. 21st 1858 to the present date, speaking of its humble beginning with 14 members under the Rev. Matthew P. Grier and tracing the various stages of its development until now when the membership numbers 472. Of the original members of the church, not one is now living. Dr. McClure was heard with the closest interest and evident satisfaction by all in attendance upon the service. In the development of the sketch Dr. McClure made fitting recognition of 30 years' faithful services of James Johnson, the sexton of the church and a respectable colored man of the community.

Letters of fraternal greeting were read by the pastor from the Rev. A. McFadyen, stated clerk of Wilmington Presbytery, and the Rev. Geo. F. Robertson, of Steele Creeke, N. C., a class mate of the pastor at the Seminary, who last year conducted a series of very successful evangelical meetings at the church.

After a thank offering by the congregation while the choir sang with fine effect "Glory be to God on High" —Mozart, Rev. Alexander Sprunt, D. D., of Charleston, S. C., another son of the lamented Mr. Sprunt, founder of the church, delivered a brief but very eloquent address in which he referred to the church as having been born in prayer, the congregation then before him attesting the genuine appreciation by the people of an agency for so much good in Wilmington. St. Andrew's was an honor to the church and a blessing to the community. The Christian faith was constructive and and he had but a word to commend to the congregation, that was that it press on to the mark of its high calling in Christ Jesus.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, upon what proved to be one of the most appropriate and inspiring church celebrations in Wilmington in years.

The services at the church Sunday morning and afternoon were also largely attended. At the morning service Mr. James Wesley White sang in splendid voice "A Prayer of Penitence" by Wagner, and the anniversary sermon by Dr. Sprunt is spoken of by all in attendance as having been a most earnest and eloquent discourse, especially befitting an occasion of so much interest and moment to the people of Saint Andrew's.

At the hour for the Sabbath School at 3:30 o'clock the exercises took the form of a "Cradle Roll Rally" at which the address was by Dr. Sprunt and especially interesting to the young people. At 7 P. M. the meeting of the W. S. C. E. of the congregation was also with special regard to the anniversary. All the services in connection with the anniversary were highly appropriate and pleasing, the occasion being a notable one in the religious life of the city.

Injured by Automobile.

Roy, the 15-year-old son of Mr. R. A. Burnett, No. 615 South Front street, was painfully but not seriously injured in a collision of his bicycle with the automobile of Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, near Fourth and Castle streets, Sunday afternoon. The bicycle was broken up and the boy's right leg was injured. Dr. Caldwell took the young man to his home and gave him all the necessary attention, so that it is expected he will be all right in a few days.

BLADEN JAIL DELIVERY.

Two Negroes Held For Higher Court Made Escape Saturday Night.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Nov. 22.—There was another jail delivery here last night when two negroes bound over to court dug through the walls and escaped from the county jail, which is a new up-to-date building. This is the third jail delivery here during the past three or four months, four having escaped heretofore and it begins to look suspicious. One prisoner, a negro who was sentenced to the October term to serve six months for retailing remained in jail and refused to go with the others last night.

The annual conference of the South Carolina Methodist Episcopal church will convene at Laurens, S. C., today, Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore presiding.

EXTERNAL REMEDY FOR ECZEMA

Why Salves Fail While a Simple Liquid Has Accomplished Thousands of Cures.

It is now thoroughly established among the best medical authorities that eczema is purely a skin disease, due to a germ and curable only through the skin. It is not a blood disease at all; in fact, thousands of people suffer with skin disease and are perfectly healthy otherwise, and therefore prove they have no diseased blood.

Smeary salves cannot reach the germs because they do not penetrate the skin. The only way to reach the germs is by means of a penetrating liquid.

Such a liquid can be obtained by simply mixing ordinary oil of wintergreen with thymol, glycerine and other healing agents. This compound known as D. D. D. Prescription stops the itch instantly—and the cures all appear to be permanent. In fact, it took thousands of cures, case after case, before the best scientific authorities were convinced of the absolute merit of this remedy. The effect of D. D. D. Prescription in numbing the itching eczema germs is seen within one minute after the first application. We especially recommend D. D. D. Soap in connection with this treatment.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Wilmington readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

R. A. Biddle, 600½ Castle street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "About four years ago my wife and I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at R. Bellamy's drug store, for kidney trouble and they did us so much good that we gave a testimonial for publication recommending them. We have had no occasion to resort to their use since, as the cure they performed proved permanent, and we are therefore, willing that our recommendation be published again. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills a great many times and know of several people who have been greatly benefitted by their use."

HE TELLS PEOPLE WHAT IT WILL DO

Gives a Detailed Description of The Dilferent Plant Juice Remedies.

WHAT THEY'LL ACCOMPLISH

Local Representative of Col. Dillingham Receives Many Inquiries From Persons Who Want Information Concerning Plant Juice Remedies.

There have been a large number of inquiries received from persons in the vicinity who ask for a detailed description of the Plant Juice remedies and their uses and to supply this information, the following description of the various remedies was made by Col. Dillingham's local representative:

Plant Juice is prepared in four different forms under the supervision of the Dillingham proprietorship, and represent the following remedies and uses:

Dillingham's Plant Juice is the original preparation which has created so much attention wherever introduced. It is an unfailing remedy for catarrh, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, scrofula, and so-called blood diseases, chills, fevers, diseases common to women, and will remove worms and all disease germs.

Its introduction in every community has been followed by some of the most remarkable cures, and the thousands of voluntary testimonials now in the possession of Col. Dillingham are the strongest endorsement the medicine could receive. The simplest methods only are required in following the treatment, and the most gratifying results are always obtained. The sales of this preparation have been universally satisfactory.

Dillingham's Plant Juice Liniment is justly styled the greatest pain medicine on earth, and already hundreds of Wilmington people are ready to testify to the truth of this assertion. It is an unfailing remedy for rheumatism, sore throat, pleurisy, pneumonia, croup, toothache, fainting, headache, stiff joints, cuts, burns, chilblains, heartburn, lumbago, spinal affection, sprains, cramps in the stomach, bruises, dysentery, bruised or twisted limbs, the result of falls, or other accidents, and, in fact, is unfailing in its curative effects in all cases requiring prompt and effective relief.

Plant Juice Healing Salve is another of the splendid preparations and has its legitimate use for the afflicted. It is especially valuable in cases of old sores, burns and painful injuries where a safe and healing preparation is needed.

Plant Juice Soap is a favorite Dillingham seller. It is one of the most reliable toilet soaps manufactured. It is especially good for shaving purposes, and is having a tremendous sale wherever introduced, taking the place of the standard brands of shaving soap which have been in use for years.

Plant Juice Remedies are on sale at all local drug stores.

Between 200 and 300 Washington Navy yard employes will be dismissed January 1st in order to reduce the forces to a "peace basis."

"Battling" Nelson, the prize fighter, was arrested by Constable Smith, of Burnham, Ills yesterday on warrants charging disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. The charges come as a sequel to a dog fight which was raided at the village of Burnham near Chicago the night before.

Col. W. H. Zimmerman, of Brazil, Ind., an officer in the reigment in which McKinley served as a private and a prominent coal operator, died late Sunday on a Queen and Crescent train entering Macon, Ga., while on a homeward trip from Florida where he had been for his health. He was 72 years old.

The trial of A. E. Gilbert, assistant freight agent of the C. and O., charged with rebating on grain and packing house shipments on the S. A. L. and A. C. L. and other connecting links, was begun in the Federal Court at Richmond yesterday, Judge Waddill presiding. Court was adjourned out of respect to Judge Leak, law partner of Hill Carter, of counsel for the defense.

Congressman Hobson, at Canton, Ohio, yesterday sent a letter to the President demanding that he rescind his order recalling the fleet from the Pacific and scoring Roosevelt for his interference in the Japanese troubles in California as a local matter. Conditions that have no counterpart in the Atlantic exist, Hobson says and it would be a National and international calamity to withdraw the fleet.

The government's petition for a writ of certiorari in the Standard Oil case was filed in the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday and the attorney general makes strong effort to impress the court that the case should fall in the category of the 10 per cent. of such petitions usually granted by the court. If it is granted the entire case will be reviewed and if not the government will have to find some other means of presenting its controversy to the court.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." PETERSON & RULFS

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Beaufort Lookout: An extraordinary catch was made by John Willis, while fishing near the draw recently. It was a 50-pound sea turtle. The hooks merely caught in one of the monster's fins, but it brought him to the surface.

—Newbern Sun: The clam dealers of Morehead City, shipped this morning by the way of Newbern a car load of clams. They were consigned to parties in New York city. There was also a heavy shipment of fish from this market, Beaufort and Morehead City, going to several northern markets.

—Rocky Mount Record: We have to report another light week in tobacco circles, the farmers evidently being very busy with other lines of farm work. Sales for the week about 350,000 pounds, at an average of about $11.00 per hundred. Quality of the offerings was not as good as in October, there being a large proportion of common, green, non-descript leaf showing up, with quite a sprinkling of common lugs and primings. Good tobacco is selling at outside prices.

—Greensboro Record: Governor-elect and Mrs. W. W. Kitchin, of Roxboro, have accepted the invitation of Governor and Mrs. R. B. Glenn, and next week will be their guests at the Governor's mansion in Raleigh. Governor-elect Kitchin and Governor Glenn are citizens of the same Congressional district and are personal friends, the invitation to Mr. Kitchin and his wife being for a social visit which will give them an opportunity of being in the home which they are to occupy for the next four years.—

—Elizabeth City, Nov. 21.—It looks probable now that Elizabeth City will soon add another manufacturing plant to her list. Parties representing a large wood-working plant of Cincinnati, Ohio, have been in the city inspecting sites and gathering all information necessary relative to establishing such a plant in this city. The proposed plant requires gum timber, an abundance of which can be found in this section and a large quantity of which is already used by different manufacturing plants here. The parties wish a site of about 20 acres and propose to establish a mill that will cut about 10,000,000 feet per year.

—Rockingham Anglo-Saxon: Col. Hervey Coppedge holds the record around here of having the distinction of beating time of a horse in a 24-mile stunt. Br. Coppedge is rural mail carrier on route 4. Wednesday morning, when he went to take out his horse to go out on his route he found his horse sick—or tired, as he explained it—and he concluded to hoof it, as the air was crisp and fine. He left town at 10:20 A. M., stopped on his route twice to eat and returned to town at 5:55, making the 25 miles in 7 hours and three-fourths.

—Fayetteville, Nov. 21.—The November term of Cumberland Superior Court convenes here Monday, 23rd, for the trial of criminal cases, with a heavy docket. Judge Biggs will preside. The most interesting cases are the trial of young Thomas Riddle, who shot and killed his father, James Riddle, at Hope Mills, some time ago, and the numerous cases of blind tigers unearthed in the last few days by Anti-Saloon League detectives, these cases numbering so far 18. Great interest is manifested here in the outcome of the blind tiger trials, owing to the number of persons involved and the sensational incidents attending the inauguration of the suits.

—Goldsboro, Nov. 21.—Mr. I. F. Lane, section master of the Southern Railway in this city, and his wife have the deepest sympathy of all the people here in the sudden and distressing bereavement that befel them this morning in the accidental killing of their 12-year-old son, Bennie, who with a little playmate, was engaged in making a swing under the cotton platform, near the railroad yard, almost opposite their home, when a heavy piece of timber fell from its position, striking him on the head, from which he died in a few moments. A physician was summoned speedily, but the little fellow was beyond his aid.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Perhaps there is no law against a man's fixing up imitation red-eye liquor, by coloring water with harmless chemicals, and thereby getting ahead of the people who seek to buy illegal booze through the agency of the "blind tiger." And perhaps the defendant thought that those who catered to this class of trade had been treated so badly by their customers in the past when these customers peached on the tigers and got them into trouble that it would not be at all wrong to retaliate a little and at the same time reap personal benefit in the shape of coin of the realm paid for the imitation liquor. However that may be, Charlie Johnson, the colored vender of imitation red-eye, who was before the recorder this morning, could not be held for retailing, as he had sold no liquor nor had he attempted to sell any. The only manner in which Johnson can be held for fooling his patrons is under indictment for obtaining money under false pretense.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 23.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today with trading rather less active and the close steady, net 4 points lower to 5 points higher. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 6 points on the more active months, in response to lower cables than expected and liquidation by near month shorts who were evidently alarmed by reports that cotton could be brought here profitably for delivery in contract. July and October opened net unchanged in the absence of important offerings, but after the opening the general market acted quite unsettled, and January was particularly weak, selling off to a net loss of 8 points under local bear pressure and liquidation by trailing longs There was a good demand at the decline, especially for the latter months, from Wall street and other outside sources, December maintained its premium, and while there seemed to be no fresh bullish development in the general news, the market became decidedly firmer during the afternoon, with March, May and July making new high records for the season and the general list showing a net advance of 2 to 9 points. At 9.38 for December, however, one of the larger spot houses began selling that position, believed to be against cotton to be shipped here from Texas and the market eased off in consequence, closing all the way from 3 to 8 points below the best. A good deal of the business represented undoing of straddles between near and late positions.

Receipts at the ports today were 63,850 bales, against 61,156 last week and 54,293 last year; for the week 400,000, bales against 405,493 last week and 335,830 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 11,015 bales, against 17,826 last year, and at Houston 18,849 bales against 7,435 last year.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 23.—Today's business at the stock exchange was the smallest for any day since the election. The total was 732,400 shares. In the larger financial circles of the Wall street section there is an avowed satisfaction with the slowing down of a speculative pace which it was feared would prove perilous and involve ulterior consequences that would be detrimental to the march of industrial and commercial progress in the country. There is a realization that the assembling of Congress and the State Legislatures may bring some forces into action that will chill speculative enthusiasm. It is supposed that this may follow from the too exuberant views that speculators have professed of the extent to which anti-corporation sentiment in the country have been appeased. The taking up of the tariff schedules in the practical work of a revision of rates of duty must be taken account of for some disturbing effect, which the speculation has been inclined to ignore for a time. The stock market showed some tendency towards an upward reaction from the sharp fall which was in force at the close of last week. There was quite a volume of selling orders in the market at the opening, as the after effect of last week's fall, and those made the opening prices lower. At the lower level the professional traders on the floor were disposed to work for a recovery on the ground that the fall had reached such extent as to invite a rebound. The wiping of a short interest in the course of the decline had improved the technical condition of the market. On the recovery there was a marked dwindling of the demand which served as notice of the reluctance as yet to renew the purchases of stocks on a large scale. An important part of the selling was for foreign account and this was of such effect on the foreign exchange market as to keep alive the discussion of possible gold exports. Rates kept near to the gold export point to Paris, the rise in exchange there being met by strength here. Discounts hardened also in London and Paris, while time money rates were lower here. demand for loans decreasing and supplies offering showing some accumulation. Paris again took gold in London at an advance in the price. The large demand and good price for the offering of New York City 4 per cent. corporation stock was significant of the appetite of capital for high class investment and the 4 1-2 per cent. bonds sold last year rose above any previous price they have commanded.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $5,057,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 732,400 shares.

ADMIRALS ANSWER WARSHIP CRITICS

Assure American People They Are Equal to Ships of Other Nations.

REPLIES THREE ADMIRALS

Were Made Public at Banquet in Chicago Last Night—Evans Says Critics Opinions are Silly and Misleading.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Critics of the navy who condemn warships because of minor defects were publicly answered at a banquet tonight of the United States Naval Academy alumni of the west. Six rear admirals sat at the banquet board at the auditorium hotel, and letters scathing recent critics and praising the navy were read from Admiral George Dewey, Rear Admiral Schley and Rear Admiral R. D. Evans.

Rear Admiral Capps declared that the vessels of this country were fully abreast of the times. Each of the following opinions were written in response to a request:

Admiral Dewey's letter said in part: "Of the battleships designed during the past five years I have spoken, and shall continue to speak in the highest terms. The South Carolina and Michigan, the North Dakota and that class are in my opinion equal in value to any battleships of their displacement in any navy and this is, I believe, the general naval verdict upon their power and efficiency.

"The fleet of baltteships now going around the world are of older type and some of them have lived about half the life, as commonly estimated, of a battleship of the first line.

Admiral W. S. Schley's letters says in part: "I am wholly out of sympathy with the critics who find nothing good in what exists, or whose policy appears to be destructive rather than constructive.

"I take exception to much of the adverse criticism today, because the fact is withheld that many of the minor defects adverted to were incident to the time and type when those vessels were constructed and they are common to a large percentage of the war vessels of every other power. But the inference sought to be established that our ships are inferior in their classes to those in foreign navies, is unfair, untrue and unpatriotic."

Rear Admiral Capps: "I requested an opinion from only one other and this officer is one who has served as a commander-in-chief of modern fleets for a longer period than any American naval officer now living. He is an officer of whom the President of the United States, who expressed himself in the following terms in a letter referring to a publication soon to appear: 'Your career has been one that has reflected honor upon the entire American people and it covered a period which saw changes as great as those which divided the period of the rowing galleys which sought at Lepanto from the period of the great sailing ship that formed the fleets of Blake and Nelson of Tromp and De Ruyter and Suffren. While still one of the youngest officers in the navy in the assault at Fort Fisher at the close of the Civil War you won with signal gallantry the honorable wounds that you yet bear; and you ended as the rear admiral who took on its first and most important stage the great battle fleet which is at this moment engaged in making the longest voyage ever undertaken by any such fleet of any Nation.

"'I hope your book will be widely read throughout all the country for it cannot but tend in favor of a glowing and lofty patriotism.'

"Of course there is no doubt as to whom the President refers to in the foregoing. I will read the letter from Rear Admiral Evans:

"'After an experience with our fleet which few men have had, I am convinced that our ships taken as a whole are equal to or superior to those built by any other country. Of course, our first ships are not the equals of the last foreign ships and no sane man would expect them to be; but date for date of design, they are the equals of any, except in the case of our latest designed ships, where the great superiority of ours is beyond question. As fighting machines, our designs of the last few years show great advantages over anything proposed abroad. I have made it my business to study the recent criticisms of our navy published in the various magazines and papers, and I have no words with which to tell you how unjust, misleading and silly they are.'"

MISSOURI'S ELCTORAL VOTE

Bryan Secures one Vote From That State on Divided Vote

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 23.—A possibility that the electoral vote of Missouri may be divided between Taft and Bryan arose today when it was discovered that one Bryan elector received more votes than the lowest Taft elector. Whether Bryan will be given this vote in the electoral college depends upon a decision which the Governor now has under advisement.

THE AUTOMOBILE RACES

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 23.—Although the 14 foreign cars in the grand prize race to be run here on Thursday are still the favorites over their six American rivals, the honors of the final practice spins over the 25-mile course went to one of the American entrants and the automobile enthusiasts who are anxious for an American victory over the flower of the foreign makes have grown decidedly more hopeful.

Willie Haupy, a young American driver who began his racing career not more than two years ago and who has amazed some of the older men at the wheel by his seemingly reckless speeding around the turns, made one round of the course today at an average speed of approximately 71 miles an hour. The unofficial timers caught the lap at 21:06. To gain this average over a course which has 18 banked turns and 26 flat curves, it was necessary for the young driver of the Chadwick car to attain a speed of more than 90 miles in the straight stretches.

Haupt's car seems to be more sensitive to the uneven places in the road any any of the others, and today when he was setting this new record for the course, the big six cylinder racing machine appeared constantly to leave the ground. Haupt reported later that because of excessive oil on the course at one turn his car slid along on two wheels for 40 feet or more. On his second tour of the course Haupt threw a tire from one of the rear wheels. His speed was so great that when the car was brought to a standstill and the mechanician sent back, no trace of the tire, which evidently had been hurled off into the dense undergrowth along the Ferguson avenue stretch, could be found.

The "Baby racers" entered in the international light car race to be run on Wednesday, as a preliminary to the American Grand prize, were all out on the course today and succeeded in setting new marks for the perfect rectangle which comprises the short 9.8 miles course. This course, which is part of the larger prize route, has but four turns, all left handed. Burman, the driver who has smashed two cars and one mechanician and who had to go it alone in many of his trial spins threafter, made one circuit today in his little Buick in 10:19, or an average of between 57 an 58 miles. The best average the promoters of the race have dared to hope for the more than 200 miles, is 45 miles an hour. F. T. Cameron, driving a Cameron car, made a circuit of the short course in 10:23, the second best time of the day for the light cars.

GILMORE WAS LYNCHED.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 23.—Jim Gilmore, a negro, about 20 years old, was taken from the guard house in Luray, a small town in Hampton county, this State, after midnight last night and lynched by a party of enraged citizens. Gilmore had, it is alleged, attempted to criminally assault one of the daughters of his employer, Mr. A. C. Fitts, a highly respectable farmer, while the young lady and her sister were asleep Saturday night. Her screams aroused the family and Gilmore fled but was tracked down and confessed.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong; He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complains. CREATION OF THE OIL TRUST

Credited by Him to H. M. Flagler and S. C. T. Todd—The Missing Stock Transfer Books—Rockefeller to Help Find Them.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 23.—Credit for the creation of the Standard Oil trust, which counsel for the Federal Government claims still exists as the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, was given by John D. Rockefeller as a witness today under cross-examination in the Federal suit to dissolve the Standard, to two men—Henry M. Flagler and Samuel C. T. Todd.

To these two master architects of the oil combine Mr. Rockefeller gave full credit, saying that he did not possess the ability for so progressive a move. Mr. Rockefeller spent an arduous day on the stand under the incessant questioning of Frank B. Kellogg, the Government counsel, and when adjournment was taken until tomorrow he gave every evidence of delight that the day was done. Counsel hope to conclude Mr. Rockefeller's cross-examination, when it is planned to place John D. Archbold, vice president of the Standard on the stand.

Frank B. Kellogg, who with other Government investigators has been endeavoring for over a year to obtain the missing stock transfer books of the Standard Oil trust, sought today through Mr. Rockefeller to find the missing trail to these books, and Mr. Rockefeller promised to do what he could to find them.

Mr. Rockefeller's examination today carried him through the period of the Standard Oil trust and the years of its subsequent liquidation which lasted from 1892 to 1899.

Mr. Rockefeller's memory at times was not clear on the definite details of this trust liquidation period and he told counsel that he could not recall many of the incident and developments of that time. During the day Mr. Kellogg developed from Mr. Rockefeller that early in the industrial existence of the Standard the presidents of two railroad companies, together with several railroad directors, were stockholders in the oil combination.

After adjournment tonight Mr. Rockefeller told an inquiring audience of reporters that there were better things in the world than making money and since 1891 he had been gradually retiring from business.

Mr. Rockefeller said that the various companies in the Standard Oil Trust agreement which was made in 1882, were managed as separate and independent corporations.

He said that the total value of the 39 corporations included in the trust was approximately $70,000,000, and that each of the stockholders named in the trust agreement received certificates for the amount of stock of subsidiary companies which he owned.

Mr. Rockefeller said that the Standard Oil Trust was dissolved in 1892 in obedience to an order of the courts. A majority of the stock held by the trust was distributed to the individual stockholders, but the trustees continued to hold a large number of shares which were not liquidated at first. Mr. Rockefeller and H. H. Rogers were among those who surrendered their trust certificates and obtained stock in the original company, he said. From 1892 to 1899 the subsidiary companies were conducted by their various officers and boards of directors elected by their own stockholders.

After the dissolution of the trust the stockholders of the individual companies, he said, maintained the same relations as before with those who were still in the trust. The Standard Oil Company of Ohio, and the Solar Refining Company, were among the competitors of the trust after the dissolution.

CANNON READY TO ACT

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Joseph G. Cannon, Speaker of the House of Representatives, who was in Chicago today en route to Washington, placed himself on record in favor of the revision of the tariff in view of the promise of the Republican party platform and declared that so far as his vote was concerned he would see to it that the announced policy of revision would be written in the National laws as soon as possible. The words of the speaker at the conclusion today of a luncheon given by six rear admirals of the United States navy by Alexander H. Revall, of Chicago, in the Union League Club at which the need of more battleships and increased efficiency of the fighting forces of the republic were the principal themes of discussion.

Speaker Cannon declared himself in favor of an efficient navy and army for the good of the republic. "Any change in the revenue laws of the country of necessity is followed by a depression of business," said Speaker Cannon. "Three years ago I followed the lead of Theodore Roosevelt who declared that there should be no revision of the revenue laws, which means the tariff, until after the next general election. His policy was not to change existing conditions. The Republican platform on which the national contest has been won says "Revisie the revenue laws. That revision should be with due regard to protection and penalty against discriminatory nations. As a member of the next House of Representatives, and I'll be there if I live, I am going, so far as my vote is concerned to see to it, that the policy of the Republican party on this question is written in the National laws as promptly as possible. The laws should be written promptly so that business can adjust itself to changed conditions for the change will of necessity bring disturbance."
